A Desktop Support Engineer is expected to work with a variety of software to install, configure, troubleshoot, and support end users. Here are the main software categories:

1. Operating Systems

Windows 10/11
Windows Server (basic administration)
macOS (basic support)
Linux (Ubuntu, CentOS – basic knowledge)

2.Microsoft Office Suite

Microsoft Word
Microsoft Excel
Microsoft PowerPoint
Microsoft Outlook
Microsoft Teams

3.Email & Collaboration

Microsoft Outlook
Microsoft Teams
Zoom
Google Workspace
Slack

4.Remote Support Tools
AnyDesk
TeamViewer
Remote Desktop Connection (RDP)
Quick Assist
VNC Viewer

5.Ticketing Systems

ServiceNow
Jira Service Management
BMC Remedy
Zendesk
Freshservice

6.Active Directory & Microsoft Tools

Active Directory Users and Computers (ADUC)
Group Policy Management (basic)
Microsoft Entra ID (Azure Active Directory)
Microsoft Intune
Microsoft Endpoint Configuration Manager (SCCM/MECM)

7.Antivirus & Endpoint Security

Microsoft Defender
Symantec Endpoint Protection
McAfee
Trend Micro
CrowdStrike Falcon

8.Web Browsers

Google Chrome
Microsoft Edge
Mozilla Firefox

9.Networking Tools

Command Prompt (ipconfig, ping, tracert, netstat, nslookup)
PuTTY (SSH/Telnet)
Wireshark (basic packet analysis)

10.Disk & System Utilities

Disk Management
Device Manager
Event Viewer
Task Manager
Windows Backup and Restore

11.PDF & Compression Software

Adobe Acrobat Reader
7-Zip
WinRAR

12.Virtualization

VMware Workstation
Oracle VirtualBox
Hyper-V

13.Printer & Device Management

HP Smart
Canon Printer Drivers
Epson Printer Utility
Print Management Console